

Parks named in honor of those who are now resting in Double Butte Cemetery

Arredondo Park – Named for the Arredondo Family (Buried in Section 16)

Birchett Park – Named for the family of Joseph Birchett (Buried in Section 7)

Clark Park – Named for Tempe Councilman that donated the land. (Buried in Section 23)

Cole Park – Named for W.W. Cole, Tempe Mayor 1937-1948 (Buried in Section E)

Corbell Park – Named for Victor Corbell – President of SRP (Buried in Section 16)

Goodwin Park – Named for four (4) brothers: William (Buried in Section B) James & Garfield (Buried in Section C), Thomas (Buried Section D) James was a member of the Theodore Roosevelt Riders and was elected to the Arizona Territorial Legislature.

Harelson Park – Harvey Harelson – Tempe Businessman & Councilmember (Buried in Section 8)

Hayden Butte Preserve – Named in honor of Charles & Carl Hayden (Buried in Section B)

Hudson Park – Named for E. W. Hudson – USDA Gov't Experiment Director who developed "Pima" cotton which became the leading crop in Arizona. (Buried in Section 7)

Meyer Park – Named for Albert & Agnes Meyer, a bus driver and teacher, respectively. (Buried in Section 9)

Moeur Park – Named for Honor Anderson Moeur (wife of Governor B.B. Moeur) (Buried in Section 4)

Palmer Park – Named for Vic Palmer, the first Tempe Parks and Recreation Director (Buried in Section 17)

Redden Park – Names for James E. Redden an early Tempe settler. (Buried in Section C)

Scudder Park – Named for Benjamin and Rebecca Scudder. Benjamin taught history at the Normal School and became the 1st principal & superintendent of Tempe School. (Buried in Section 4)

Selleh Park – Named for Joe Selleh, who came to Arizona in 1928 to play baseball with the Senators. (Buried in Section 16)